Family name originating from La Sagne and Ponts-de-Martel and Valangin's burgess.

There is no evidence that Florentin ever left the area. But Europe was under siege from Napoleon and the area of Neuchatel was greatly affected. He seized Switzerland in 1798 and not until 1815 did Switzerland regain its independence again. In 1815 when the Vienna Convention was held, all the land France had acquired by Napoleon were returned. It was also at this time that 3 cantons were added to Switzerland. One of these being Neuchatel from Prussia. So it appears that although he never left the area and his children being born there. They were born in different countries; Prussia, France and Switzerland.
